In the
struggles of mortality,
we are never left alone
to accomplish our work,
to fight our battles,
to face adversity or
unanswered
questions.

— OF VISIONS, HEALINGS
AND MINISTERING OF ANGELS — HAS NOT CEASED."

*The only opinion of us
that matters is what our Heavenly Father thinks of us.
Sincerely ask him what He thinks of you.
He will love and correct
but never discourage us;
that is Satan's trick.*

J. Devn Cornish

*Be careful, your blessings
may come in unexpected
